F. Freeman – 570 Keap St. Brklyn N.Y.

AMERICAN BOOK COMPANY
~~100 WASHINGTON SQUARE~~
~~NEW YORK~~

BROOKLYN, N.Y.
MAR 2
12 PM
1919
STA. D

J. M. Freeman, Esq.,
45 Goodwin Building,
Memphis, Tenn.

March 7, 1919

Precious Honey: — Sunday: —

Have been sewing all day. It has been such a wonderful day, that honestly I hated to stay in. Have almost completed another dress. Oh Lord! I do wish I had everything done!

What, love, have you been doing to-day? I'll bet the weather down South, too, must be ideal. Expected Rose up to-day to show me her furs, but she has not came, so I take it that she did not get it; it was not, no doubt, finished. I think, too, since the weather was so nice that Papa + Mama went to the cemetery this morning.

I was up until about 7 this morning sewing and then at it again at 8.30. Somehow I can't get much accomplished I don't know why. Perhaps its because I plans to do so much.

Well, honey, I don't know a thing more that will interest you, except, perhaps, that I love you; (just a little tiny bit). And, do you still love me a little? I guess you do - only a little bit, is!

So, dear heart, I shall say good night, and pleasant dreams. I shall try to manage a long letter to-morrow - but honey dear, I can't think of a thing that will interest you. I guess I getting stupid. All my love, to my precious

Have been sewing all day. It has been such a wonderful day, that honestly I hated to stay in. Have almost completed another dress. Oh Lord! I do wish I had everything done!

What, love, have you been doing to-day? I'll bet the weather down South, too, must be ideal. Expected Rose up to-day to show me her furs, but she has not come, so I take it that she did not get it; it was not, no doubt, finished. I think, too, since the weather was so nice that Ralph & Mam went to the cemetary this morning.

I was up until about 7 this morning sewing and then at it again at 8.30. Somehow I cannot get much accomplished I don't know why. Perhaps its because I plan to do so much.

Well, honey, I don't know a thing more that will interest you, except, perhaps, that I love you; (just a little tiny bit). And, do you still love me a little? I guess you do - only a little bit, eh?

So, dear heart, I shall say good night, and pleasant dreams. I shall try to manage a long letter to-morrow - but honey dear I cant think of a thing that will interest you. I guess I getting stupid. All my love, to my precious hubby.

Yours Everlovingly
Kate.